Dear Mr. Stillson Judah: -

Due to the fact that I have been ill for the past month, I beg your pardon for the long delay in answering your letter concerning the free library-loan service by mail.

Our pastors here appreciate very much your kind and generous service for they are really very much in need of good literature. I will be very happy to bear the responsibility of representing both your library and our ministers in camp.

11/4/42

During this week, we ministers will choose the books desired and send you the complete list.

Thanking you again for your interest and kind consideration,

I am

Yours gratefully,

Dear Mr. Tsuda:

I am sending the following books to you which were among those requested for the ministers in your camp last November:

For Rev. Susumago, Fosdick. Living without tension.
Rev. Iizuni, Seidenspinner. Form and freedom of worship.
Rev. Tajima, Lewis. A philosophy of Christian Revelation.
Rev. Oshita, Calkins. How Jesus dealt with men.
Rev. Tsuda, Larrson. Saints at prayer.

I have stamped these for two weeks, and then renewal privileges of two more weeks if needed, and requested. These are all very popular books, and I already have requests for these books just as soon as they return.

I am also sending a whole collection of religious literature, 43 volumes in all. These will form a semi-permanent library in your camp for the ministers and church workers. After about three months you will be sent an address of some other camp by me, and at that time you will send the entire collection to that address, and will receive an entirely new collection from some other camp. The postage will be paid by us. In this way you will have access to many hundreds of books before long. At different times I may send you additional new books to add to this collection. I have received the cooperation of eight other seminaries who have sent collections for your use. You will notice that all of these books you are now receiving are from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

Since all books are the property of some library, I know you will want to be sure to know who is reading each book, so that you may have all books returned to you at the time you are to ship them on. Therefore yours will now be the responsibility of seeing that no books are lost. I suggest that you have anyone who is taking out a book to sign a piece of paper and write down the author and title of the book. When the book is returned, the paper may then be destroyed. I am enclosing a check list of all the books in the collection which you will keep until the books are sent on to another camp, at which time it should be enclosed with the books.

I shall also be very glad to send any of the other current books which the ministers may desire to read, and which are found on the list sent to you.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Tsuda:

At your request I am sending the following books: Maritain: Ransoming the time; Wieman: Nowewe must choose; Hart: New gateways to creative living.

These are lent in your care for two weeks, with permission to renew for two more weeks, if needed. However, as you imagine, there are so many requests for so few books I hope they may be returned as soon as possible, and I shall fill your new requests.

Also in your next letter will you please let me know the denominations of these men borrowing books, since I am keeping a record of this. It is also necessary at this time, since those not of the three denominations sited in my first letter to you must be responsible for payment of postage both ways.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Tsuda:

At your request I have sent to you Parkes. The Pragmatic Test, which was asked for by Rev. R. Susumago. The books wanted by Rev. Iizumi are both out, but I will send them just as soon as they return.

When placing a man's request for the first time, will you please give me his denomination, since I am keeping a record of this.

All books at the present time are lent for a period of two weeks with the permission to renew for an additional two weeks. Since there are so many wanting so few books, however, I hope to have most of them back after two weeks, so as to give more men the same opportunity of reading the books.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mr. Judah:

We are very gratefull for your generous service for the Japanese center here and for the ministers. I recieved a pakage of 5 books for the ministers and 43 books of another big pakage as the loan library for this center for three months over which our sunday school teachers and young people are appreciating so much for your fine service. We will make a good use of them as much as we can.

After three months I expect I have to send them to some other center. When time comes will you please tell me where to send.

I told the ministers that their books should be returned in two weeks and they asked me to write to you two weeks extention because of their slow reading. So please accept their extention. They will send them in the first part of Feb.

Dear Mr. Tsuda:

Under separate cover I am sending to you for the Rev. Susumago the book by Tigner, No sign shall be given which he had on his list of requests you sent to me a couple of months agol

I imagine that by this time you have received the shipment of books which you are to keep as a semi-permanent library. When you have time I should like you to write and let me know how these books have been received by the ministers of your camp. Also, if you can, I wish you might let me know the amount in postage it required to send the books to you, i.e. if the cartons they came in have not yet been destroyed.

Since I have about completed filling out requests for books for the ministers in your camp, I should be very glad to have a new list, if your ministers have in mind anything on the lists I sent to you, which they would like to read.

Yours very sincerely,

We have been fortunate in securing funds to purchase new books for the WRA camp libraries. These new books will be in part, current books, and in part, books selected from a large bibliography of books which represent what the professors of three theological seminaries consider the basic books in each field of the Christian religion. Thus other books both current and basic are being ordered for all the other camps, and each camp has its portion of books from this bibliography.

I have already placed the orders for the new books, and they will be sent directly from the publishers to you. They are:

Niebuhr. Nature and Destiny of Man
Pfeiffer. Introduction to the Old Testament
Brunner. Divine Imperative

When these books arrive please write plainly on the inside of the front cover "WRA Camp Library". These books are to be a part of your semi-permanent library, so print carefully the authors and titles of these on your check-list sheet.

Hoping that these books will give you and the other Japanese Christian ministers and church workers in your camp many hours of interesting and profitable reading I remain

Yours very sincerely,

Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Judah:

Your letter to Rev. Yasaburo Tsuda was referred to me as secretary-librarian of the Ministers' Association. We made a list of books from which you might make a selection for our center. Those that are checked are preferences expressed by the various ministers.

One question that was asked was whether these books were returnable to you and if so, when? We have those that you sent us from the Church Divinity School library. When are they returnable to you?

We are all very grateful to you for thinking of us. We feel so detached from normal life that it is hard to keep up with what is going on outside. Naturally, books are the measure of the pulse of the world and it is heartening to read the ideas of outstanding religious men.

May I hear from you soon as to the disposition of the books?

Most cordially yours,

Royden Susu-Mago

Dear Mr. Susu-Mago:

Much work, and lack of sufficient help during the summer made it impossible to answer your letter to me, in which you enclosed a list of books desired by the ministers of your camp.

In answer to your question about the books sent through us from the Church Divinity School, these books which have formed a semi-permanent library in your camp, together with several other volumes which we ordered for you, are now to be sent to another camp. It is our plan to rotate all of the collections in the twelve W.R.A. camps. Since we do not have funds to defray the postage we are asking the cooperation of each camp to take care of this cost amounting to about $1.50 to $2.00.

We are having the collection at Poston, Arizona, Unit 1, sent to you, and we ask you to pack and send your collection to

Rev. K. Imai,
310-7-D, Unit 3, Poston, Arizona.

Please check the books with the check list of books which should be found in the camp library, and mail the list along with the books, so that the recipient of the collection will know what books are expected to be in the collection. You in turn should receive such a list with the collection from Poston.

The following books have been ordered for your camp:
Fosdick: On being a real person; Garnett: A realistic philosophy of religion; Heidenspinner: Form and freedom in worship; Niebuhr: Nature and destiny of man. 2 v.; Hewitt: Highland shepherds; Knox: The man Christ Jesus; Luccock: Acts of the apostles; Brightman: Christian bases for world order; Brown: The new order in the church; Soper: The philosophy of the Christian world mission.; Miller: A guide for church school teachers; Joad: God and evil; Oxnam: The ethical ideals of Jesus; Bowman: The intention of Jesus; Horton: Our eternal contemporary; Macintosh: Personal religion; Temple: The hope of the new world.

When the books arrive they should have "W.R.A. Camp Library" printed carefully on the inside of the front cover, and notification of their receipt made to this library. Also, please add the authors and titles to your check-list.

Hoping that you get much enjoyment from the new collection, and the books we have ordered for you, I am

Yours very sincerely,

Stillson Judah, Librarian.

Dear Mr. Yamazaki:

The Rev. Gordon Chapman has given me your name as willing to handle the W.R.A. book collection assigned to the Gila River Center. As Mr. Chapman no doubt explained to you, books lent by several theological seminaries have been placed in a number of Relocation Camps. From time to time these books are transferred to other camps so that eventually each camp will have had the use of all the books.

Under this rotating arrangement the Gila River Center was instructed in October to forward their collection to Poston, Arizona, Unit 3, and Unit 1 at Poston received instructions to send their collection to Gila River. I have not been informed if these instructions were carried out and I would appreciate it if you would check up and let me know.

I now have in hand a limited amount of money for the purchase of additional books. Will you please send me the authors and titles of books you would like added to the collection at your Center.

Thanking you for your cooperation, and hoping to hear from you soon, I am

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Judah:

Thank you for your kind letter of December 4. I do not know about the collection of books sent here last spring. I will see Mr. Yamasaki and check with him about it. I also do not know whether the collection was sent to Poston, Arizona, and a new collection received or not. I will find this out also.

We ministers here are not financially able to purchase as many books as we want and should. I would appreciate if you will make it possible for us Christian ministers here to read the following books:

From Victory to Peace	Paul Hutchinson
The Church and Psychotherapy	by Kark Stolz
My Father's World	by Merton Rice

Dear Mr. Judah:

Through the courtesy of Rev. S. A. Stewart of Mesa, Arizone we sent the books that you mentioned in your letter of December 2nd to Poston Christian Church on January 25. Since the relocation of one of our pastors, records and other matters were left unsettled until this late date. Also, we have just opened our new church office.

We could not find the original list of books, but we made a new list and sent 45 books to Poston. When Poston sent us their books they also stated that some are missing.

Will you advise us as to the length of time we are to use the books and to where our collection should be sent next.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Kimata:

Thank you for your letter of February 2 telling me that the rotation of the book collections had been attended to. I was sorry to hear that a number had been lost.

Enclosed is a copy of all the books sent to your camp. There were 43 books in the original collection. Four new books were ordered in February to be sent direct to Rivers, and 18 books were ordered in October. However, you will note that Niebuhr's Nature and Destiny of Man (two volumes) appears on both the February and October lists. Whether this was a duplication or whether the first order was not filled I have been unable to ascertain. Perhaps you have some record of this.

Will you please check this list with the one of the books you forwarded to Poston and let me know which volumes are missing? And will you also please try to locate the missing books? They may still be in the camp.

It is possible that you did not receive all of the new books ordered for you. Have you any record made of the books as they arrived? They were supposed to be added to the check list of the original loan collection. The new books were to be marked "W.R.A. Camp Library" on the inside front cover.

There has been so much confusion and misunderstanding about the ratating of the collections that I have not had time to work out any new schedule. I will send you that information as soon as possible.

I am glad to hear that you have opened a new church office. I hope that you will have a more satisfactory way of caring for the books. You understand, of course, that they are to be returned to their owners when the need for them in the camps is over.

Thanking you for your cooperation, I am

Dear Mr. Judah:

Thank you for the list of books. Now I know just where I stand.

Upon checking the books I was to forward to Poston I find that I sent 3 more than it was necessary. They are as follows:

unaccounted for (? Gila to Post. III)

- Branch--Sermons on Great Paintings
- Lotz--Quest for God Through Worship
- Banks--Windows for Sermons

The new books that we ordered through you and which I did not know about are all here except one. Rev. J.H.M.Yamazaki received them from the publishers in January and did not know who was responsible until your letter arrived. We will send these to Poston as soon as possible. Niebuhr's Nature and Destiny of Man must be a duplication for we have the two volumes.

? send dupl. elsewhere

III

The way is stands now, from your Poston list-Worcester's Religion and Medicine and Pfeiffer's Introduction to the Old Testament are the only ones missing. I am sure we could find them someplace. Thank you for your information--we will keep an accurate account from now.

Dear Miss Kimata:

I believe that I haven't written to you since I took over Mr. Judah's work. Since I have been very busy and have had no other reason to write to you, I did not answer your question regarding Niebuhr's Nature and destiny of man.

It seems that two sets of Niebuhr' Nature and destiny of man were ordered to supplement List A. If you have either of the sets there now, please forward them to me.

I want to announce that the next rotation of WRA camp libraries sponsored by the theological schools, will take place on the first of June. If the person in charge of your collection follows the instructions that I shall give in this letter, I think the exchange can be made without any difficulty. Please read carefully the instructions that follow, and if you have any questions or suggestions, I hope you will not hesitate to write to me immediately.

You now have a collection known as "F". Gather up all the books that belong in it, check them with the list that you have of that collection, or make a list of the books, box them, and have them ready to send to Poston III. Send them by the first of June, by either parcel post or express, whichever is cheaper. I am enclosing a mailing label which will give you the address of the camp to which you are to send them. Send the list of the books that you have mailed to Poston III to them separately.

You will receive a collection of books from Topaz, Utah. I am enclosing a list of the books that will be sent to you by them. Keep this list as an aid in checking, in case the camp at Topaz does not send you a list when the books are sent. You need do nothing in regard to the books that are to be sent to you. I shall make all the necessary arrangements.

Very sincerely yours,

Dorothy Felter, Librariah

Dear Miss Felter:

Thank you for your letter of May 4 in which you have given us instructions on the exchange of books. Niebuhr' Nature and Destiny of Man was sent to Poston with the others when I took over the office here. If you want them you will have to write the Poston Church.

We will follow your directions and send our set to Camp III Poston before the first of June.

I guess Mr. Judah is probably serving in the United States Army--I did not know of the change in personnel.

Thank you for straightening out the matter of the two volumes.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Kimata

Dear Miss Kimata:

I have your letter of June 17 regarding the additional books in your present collection.

So far I have been unable to account for them. I have looked on several lists in the hope of locating such a group that could hafe become detached from its collection. However, the records are somewhat haphazard, so we shall not worry about it. If you will just add these titles to your list, I can doubtless return them to their owners when the collection is broken up.

Very sincerely yours,

Dorothy Felter, Librarian

Dear Miss Felter:

We have received the books from Topaz Center but find that it does not check with your original list. The following are the additional books:

Blackwood--Planning a Year's Pulpit Work
" Preaching from the Bible
Booth--The Quest for Preaching Power
Bower--Christ and Christian Education
Calkins--How Jesus Dealt with Men
Filson--One Lord One Faith
Fortson--How to Make Friends For Your Church
Kroner--The Primacy of Faith
Robinson--A History of Israel--Vol. I
" " " " " Vol. II
Sharpe--Biography, Walter Rauschenbusch
Sharman--Son of Man and Kingdom of God

Will you check to see why they were left out of the list sent me?

Sincerely yours,

Mary Kimata

Dear Miss Helter,

We are returning our books to you as soon as we can. Upon checking we find that some are missing. If we find them we will send them later.

We appreciate the use of these fine books. Our center will close very shortly so we have been cleaning up our church office. It seems rather bare without the books.

Sincerely yours,
Mary Kimata, Secretary

Dear Miss Kimata:

This letter is to acknowledge the receipt of the theological books which were loaned to your church. Very few are missing, and their loss is not serious. We do not want you to feel concerned about it, since it is no great loss to us, and they may be doing somone some good.

We are very glad to have been able to be of service to you, and wish you and your members every good thing as you set out to make new homes and careers.

Sincerely yours,
